

International House Joensuu

We offer personal consulting and guidance in various questions related to smooth everyday life. You can get assistance with understanding the decisions and procedures of different public authorities, as well as information on Finnish society and municipal services. Our services are aimed at people who has moved to Ilomantsi, Kontiolahti, Liperi, Outokumpu or Kitee from abroad.

You can contact us by phone or email. You can also book an appointment for online consultation. We provide services in Finnish and English. For other languages, we use interpreting services if possible. Our services are free of charge.

Do you need guidance and assistance with:

- residence permit applications
- finding an apartment
- opening a bank account
- registration with the Digital and Population Data Services Agency
- matters related to day care and school
- free time and hobbies
